OLD ENGLAND:
OR,
The CONSTITUTIONAL JOURNAL.

By JEFFREY BROADBOTTOM, of Covent-Garden, Esq;

SATURDAY, AUGUST 16, 1746. [N°. 172.]

I HAPPENED lately to meet with a small Performance, entitled, The Character of a Sneaker (a). As a Sneaker is a Species of a Creature which, I hope, is now extinct in England, my Readers will no doubt be pleas'd with the Representation of a Monster with which our Forefathers were so much infested.

A Sneaker is something so very like nothing, that it requires a metaphysical Brain to define him: He is a meer Reptile that should have had the Serpent for his Father, by his creeping upon his Belly, and Eve for his Mother, by his Readiness to comply with Temptations: He was born with a Tongue, but his Eye sight took away the Use of it; for he no sooner saw the Golden Apple of Preferment but he laid hold of it, and was silent.

He might be a Camelion for his different Appearances, but he knows not how to live upon Air: He is a meer Weather-Cock, tho' not a high Church Man, and always faces about, and turns his Backside upon every Wind, but what blows from the Court. He is for sending over for the pretended Prince of Wales, and breeding him up in the Principles of the Church of England, one Session of Parliament, and for letting in John Calvin into St. Stephen's Chapel another; he is for saying King William made a felonious Treaty in the last Reign, but is for a more dangerous Agreement in this, since the Partition only affected us in our Concerns Abroad, but a Comprehension would ruin us at Home. In short, he is good for nothing, for H. non est Litera, is a standing Rule in Prosodia.

He is a Man of great Reach and Abilities in distinguishing Metals, and if he did but know the Difference of the Mizen-Mast as well as that of a Louis d'Or from a Guinea, he might make an admirable Commander of the Navy.

He is a Gentleman that has slept away the Remembrance of what recommended him to be Knight of the Shire for *, and dreamt himself into a Place in the Exchequer, which has dazzled his Eyes so, and confounding his Understanding, that he sits down, as if at his Journey's End, with a Pension of 1500 l. per Ann. and thinks he has done enough for his Country who sent him up to Town to do their Business, not his own, in making Provisions for himself.

He is one that was to play the Devil with the Observator for writing against the Church before his Trial, but had not a Word to say for it after; Somebody had lived so merrily as to forget the Day of the Month on which he was found guilty. His Hand is always open, tho' his Mouth is shut. His Heart is as good as any Man's in England for the Church establish'd; but Charity begins at Home, and let the national Religion sink or swim as long as one is taken Care of.

He is against tacking the occasional Conformist's Bill, not for the Sake of his Country but himself. He is tacked to an Office, which he is loth to be disjoined from; and for that Cause hinders the others Conjunction: He is Cap in Hand to his Electors before they return him for their Member, but when once got upon their Shoulders, (b) he will ride them to some Purpose; it matters not what Instructions they give him, great Men are allow'd to have treacherous Memories, and he will not part with that Title to Greatness.

He is an Aristotelian, tho' he loves the Mammon of Unrighteousness too much to be a Philosopher; and his Actions are sufficient Arguments to shew, That the Corruption of one Thing is the Generation of another; (c) i. e. He makes appear that the Defection of a good Man to a bad Party is the Accession of an ill one; and if he did not know himself to have made a wrong and unjustifiable Choice he would never be ashamed of declaring his Mind in Favour of it, which shews Modesty has not forsaken him, tho' Honesty seems to have bidden him adieu.

Though he is not qualify'd to be one of his Grace of Canterbury's Chaplains, because he is not a Church-Man good enough, he may serve for one of his Watermen, for to look one Way and row another is their Business: He was put into a Post under Pretence of being a Church-Man, but imagines the ready Way to keep in it is not to be against the Dissenters, for Somebody has said they are too great a Body to be disoblig'd, and he knows he stands but upon slippery Ground, while he gives not implicit Obedience to Somebody's Orders.

He is one that has been deputed by the People to make new Laws, and thinks it of no Consequence what becomes of the old: He is of a modern Cut, and the very Reason that should be of Force with him to stand up for the Church, slackens his Resolution to defend her: She has been a Church from the Beginning, and King Solomon's Mistress is too antiquated, and out of Date for a Courtier's Embraces.

He is a pretended Stickler for the King's Authority just so long as he receives the King's Money, while, to shew how undeserving he is of Royal Favour, he confederates himself for the Downfal of the King's Religion: He is an Englishman with a Scotch Heart, an Irish Pair of Heels, and a Spanish Countenance: His Policy consists in a demure Look, his Courage in withdrawing himself when there is an Occasion; his Constancy is Variation, and his Honesty is what you think fit to call it, for I know not where to find it.

He is for a single Ministry, that he may play the Tom double under it, and had rather the Management of Affairs should be in one great Lords or Court Lady's Hands than in several, because the fewer the Superintendants the more may be the Miscarriages of those that are subordinate to them without being discerned; not that he is of this Temper for any other Account, since, notwithstanding his pretended Affection for his Majesty's Person and Government, he leans more towards a Commonwealth than Monarchy, and had rather the executive Power was to be entrusted with a Committee of Safety, and to be the Chadiah of the Party than to be lodg'd where it is.

He is for pulling down the Authority of the House of Commons even while he has the Honour to sit in it, and making a Surrender of their Right in one Point, that he may be taken for a Man of peaceable Dispositions in others: Moderation is his Pretence, but getting of Money immoderately is his Practice, and Unde habeat quærat nemo sed oportet habere, is a Lecture that takes up his whole Consideration.

He forwards the Dispatch of the public Business, that he may be the sooner a fingering the public Funds; and, having rattled himself into an Office, is under dreadful Apprehensions of being rattled out of it again. To conclude, he is neither Fish, Flesh, nor good Red Herring; he's the Punctum Saliens of all Parties, yet never serviceable to any; he is always in Motion, yet might as well sit still for the Good he does in being so; and if any City, Town, or County, wants such a Representative, he will give him as lusty Promises as the best shall, and is ready to be returned to the Clerk of the Crown when his Electors shall think fit; if not, let them look out for one that will come up to his Word, and their Expectations, for I shall not pretend to direct them when they have such an ample Field to choose in; for I am an Enemy to black Lists, and am for leaving the People of England to the Freedom of Elections.

(a) Printed in the Year 1705. 4°.

(b) At Country Elections it is customary to carry the Members chosen in Triumph on Men's Shoulders about the Town.

(c) This is the Aristotelian Principle in Naturals, but the Sneaker adapts it to Politics.

SCOTLAND.

Edinburgh, August 4. The Advices from the North continue Accounts of the Success of the Parties sent in quest of the Rebels.

The Regiments of Sempil, Pulteney and Woolfe are embarked aboard the Transports in the Road of Leith, and will sail for Holland directly.

Capt. Lorimer, Master of a Vessel belonging to Salt Coats, is arrived from Bergen in Norway; he had a Passage of eight Days to Newcastle; he says his Vessel was loaded with Tobacco, and taken by two French Privateers who cruize between Bergen and the Orkneys, that they have taken already 25 Sail of British Ships, some of which they have ransomed, and that by an Account of the Ransom-Money which he saw, it amounted to 1360 l. Sterling. Two Days before he left Bergen, the 13 Rebels confined there made their Escape. He says further, that, the Day he came off, a French Cutter arrived there, with about 30 Rebels on board, some of whom came ashore, and were either in the Highland Dress, or in the Habit of those they called their Life Guards.

Edinburgh, August 6. We hear 17 Regiments are to be left in this Country, and station'd as follows, viz. Seven Regiments in the North under General Blakeney, two on the East Coast under General Skelton, at Perth under General Huske, three at Sterling, der General Bland, one at Edinburgh, and one at Glasgow.

Yesterday 15 private Persons, taken up on Suspicion, after Examination last Week into their Case, were liberate from the City Jail.

Edinburgh, Aug. 7. We are well assured, that a Convoy is to come down with the Trade from London to Leith.

The Interlocutors of the Lords of Session, pronounc'd the 31st ult. on the Complaint exhibited against Capt. Charles Hamilton of General Cobham's Dragoons, at the Instance of Thomas Ogilvie of Caul, for alledged Malversions, bears, "That in regard due Service was made to Capt. Hamilton of said Complaint, and that he had given in no Answers, find it a Contempt of their Authority, and ordain all Officers of the Law to apprehend and incarcerate him, until he find Bail at the Sight of the Sheriff of the Shire where he shall be apprehended, to give in Answers to the said Complaint, and to satisfy and pay the Damages that shall be found due to the Complainer."

COUNTRY NEWS.

Extract of a Letter from an Officer at Fort Augustus, to his Friend in Newcastle, dated July 26.

"Kingston's Horse marches To-morrow for England. The Regiments of Foot make a Chain all along the Sea Coast, to prevent any of the Rebels getting off, and to hinder the Pretender from getting to France, where he would give the Universe to be. He has been chased this Fortnight past from one Island to another, sometimes dress'd as a Highlander, and sometimes as a Woman. We hang or shoot every one that is known to conceal him, burn their Houses, and take their Cattle; of which we have got 8000 Head within these few Days past; so that if some of your Northumberland Graziers were here they might make their Fortune."

We hear by three Masters of Ships lately arrived at Shields, from the Island of Mull in Scotland, that on Sunday July 27, they saw a French Brig from Dunkirk, about 70 Tons, brought in there by the Glasgow Man of War. She had on board 14 French Officers when taken, and had landed seven others a few Days before. The French Captain of the above Prize was formerly on the Coast of Scotland, in a Dogger, which was chased ashore and burnt by the Bridgewater Man of War, near Peterhead; but the Captain and Crew having escaped on Shore, they seized the same Vessel they were taken in, and carried her to France, where, soon after his Arrival, the French King presented him with a fine Sword and 200 Ducats; and promised, if he would return to Scotland and bring off the young Pretender, he would make him Captain of a Man of War.

LONDON.

From the LONDON GAZETTE.

Edinburgh, Aug. 2. By the latest Intelligence from Arisaig, dated the 23d of July, we are well assur'd, that the Pretender's Son continues there, and is enclos'd on all Sides, and it was believ'd that Lochiel, and some of the Highland Chiefs, were likewise within the Lines. General Campbell was then at Apple-Cross Bay, and Colonel Campbell at Lochnachuah; old Meinnen, and the Priest, Lochiel's Brother, are taken; as also Rhonald M'Donald, Brother to Kenloch Moidart. Commodore Smith was at Tobermorey, and was joined on the 22d by three Ships of War from the Northland; the Glasgow Man of War had, on the Western Coast, taken a Brigantine with thirteen Officers on board, who have since the first of June been trying to carry off the Pretender's Son. Yesterday Francis Anderson, and John Trithie, were convicted before the Court of Justiciary of the Murder of John Caranach, near Glames (whom they suspected to have given some Informations to the Government) and condemn'd to be hang'd in Chains, the one between Leith and Edinburgh, and the other at Forfar, near the Place where the Crime was committed. This Day Alexander M'Donald of Kingsborow, who was taken up for having received and entertained the Pretender's Son at his House in Skye, was sent hither a Prisoner by the Earl of Albemarle, under a Guard of the Duke of Kingston's Horse, and committed to the Castle of Edinburgh. And this Day all the Prisoners from Aberdeen were brought hither, and lodged in the Jail of the Canongate. The Transports with the three Battalions, will, it is thought be ready to sail on Monday Evening, or Tuesday Morning, for Flanders.

Westminster, Aug. 12. His Majesty came this Day to the House of Peers, and being in his Royal Robes, seated on the Throne with the usual Solemnity, Sir Charles Dalton, Gentleman-Usher of the Black Rod, was sent with a Message from his Majesty to the House of Commons, commanding their Attendance in the House of Peers. The Commons being come thither accordingly, his Majesty was pleased to give the Royal Assent to,

An Act for granting to his Majesty a certain Sum of Money out of the Sinking Fund, for the Service of the Year 1746; and for enabling his Majesty to raise a further Sum of Money for the Uses and Purposes therein mentioned; and for the further appropriating the Supplies granted in this Session of Parliament; and for making forth Duplicates of Exchequer Bills, Lottery Tickets, Receits, Annuity Orders, or other Orders lost, burnt, or otherwise destroy'd.

An Act for the further Punishment of Persons going armed or disguised, in Defiance of the Laws of Customs, or Excise, and for indemnifying Offenders against those Laws upon the Terms in this Act mentioned; and for the Relief of Officers of the Customs in Informations upon Seizures.

An Act more effectually to prohibit and prevent Pastors or Ministers from officiating in Episcopal Meeting-Houses in Scotland, without duly qualifying themselves according to Law, and to punish Persons for resorting to any Meeting-Houses where such unqualify'd Pastors or Ministers shall officiate.

An Act for the more effectual disarming the Highlands in Scotland, and for the more effectual securing the Peace of the said Highlands, and for restraining the Use of the Highland Dress; and for further indemnifying such Persons as have acted in Defence of his Majesty's Person and Government during the unnatural Rebellion; and for indemnifying the Judges, and other Officers of the Court of Justiciary in Scotland, for not performing the Northern Circuit in May 1746; and for obliging the Masters and Teachers of private Schools in Scotland to take the Oaths to his Majesty, his Heirs, and Successors, and to register the same.

An Act to allow the Purchase, for his Majesty's Use, of Naval Stores brought into this Kingdom on board neutral Ships, by any of his Majesty's Ships, and to allow such Stores to be landed and entered during the Continuance of the present Wars with France and Spain, or either of them.

An Act to regulate the Insurance on Ships belonging to the Subjects of Great Britain, and all Merchandizes or Effects laden thereon.

An Act for amending the Laws relating to Bankrupts.

An Act more effectually to prevent the Frauds and Abuses committed in the Admeasurement of Coals within the City and Liberty of Westminster, and that Part of the Duchy of Lancaster adjoining thereto, and the several Parishes of St. Giles in the Fields, St. Mary le Bon, and such Part of the Parish of St. Andrew, Holborn, as lies in the County of Middlesex.

An Act to indemnify Persons who have omitted to qualify themselves for Offices, Employments, and Promotions within the Time limited by Law, and for allowing further Time for that Purpose.

And to five private Bills.

They write from the Hague, that the Count de Chevannes, his Sardinian Majesty's Minister, had receiv'd Advice, that the King his Master had forced the Spanish and French Armies to entrench themselves again under the Walls of Placentia, where they are so closely blocked up, that there is no great Fear of their breaking out again.

We are inform'd, that on Thursday about Five in the Afternoon an Express arrived from Italy, with an Account of a compleat Victory of the Austrians over the French and Spaniards, above 7000 of them being either kill'd or taken Prisoners, and the Remainder of their Army retreating in a disorderly manner towards Genoa. It is said that General Bernclau is kill'd; and that the King of Sardinia had no farther Share in the Action, than the giving his Advice and Plan, which was properly and happily Executed.—Here's no Date either of Time or Place, yet from the Situation of the two Armies, it is not improbable but an Engagement may have happen'd—A very little Time will discover, whether this Battle was fought in Italy or in Change Alley only.

There is Advice from Liege, dated the 16th N. S. that several Persons had arrived there from the Allied Army, who brings Advice, that the French Army had marched out of their Camp on the 14th; that the Allied Army had thereupon sent off their Baggage to Huy; and that the next Morning was heard great firing of Cannon.

The News of the Princes of the Blood quitting the French Army, to avoid serving under the new Generalissimo, Count Saxe, is confirm'd; and, it's said, the Duke de Boufflers, and other great Officers, will likewise decline serving.

We are inform'd, that the Imperial Minister, Baron Wassenaer, will speedily go to the Court of Portugal, and that he is to be replac'd here by Count Rotenberg, who is at the Hague.

As the Earl of Sandwich is gone Plenipotentiary to the Hague, 'tis probable the intended Congress to restore Peace will assemble there, or at Breda. In the mean Time, our Politicians here, as well as those in Holland, are very busy in traversing the Ground Work of this Congress, and tho' they differ in their Conjectures, yet every one would be thought right: Some reinstate Things as heretofore; while others, are employ'd in erecting Kingdoms, Dukedoms, &c out of Lombardy and Brabant, and seem to think it as little Difficulty to new-model the World as to talk of it. However, one of these Coffeehouse Plenipotentiaries, to shew his Peace-making Talent not the least, drew up a Plan of a general Pacification a little while ago, and, because it's reckon'd a curious one, we give it our Readers:

PLAN for a GENERAL PEACE.

I. DON Carlos to remain in Possession of the Two Sicilies; and the Provinces of the Low Countries situate upon the Right of the Maese, to be given to Don Philip, with the Title of Archduke of Brabant.

II. France to give up Martinico, and all its Colonies in North America, to Great Britain, and Mississippi to Spain, and to have, in Exchange for this last Cession, St. Domingo entirely, and Porto Rico.

III. The Grand Duke of Tuscany, and his Heirs both Male and Female, to have the Parmesan, Plaisantin, Cremonois, Mantuan, Modenois, Ferrarois, Bolonois, and the Romagna, and a Line to be drawn from the Gulf of Piombino to Pano upon the Gulf of Venice; these Territories to bear the Title of the Kingdom of Lombardy, either independent or as a Fief of Empire.

IV. The Pope to have the Grand Duchy of Tuscany in lieu of the Ferrarois, Bolonois, and the Romagna.

V. His Sardinian Majesty to have the Tortonoise and the Milanese added to the Territories which already belong to him.

VI. Spain to yield up Ceuta to Great Britain in lieu of this last giving up the Island of Minorca to the former, who is likewise to give up to Great Britain a Tract of Land sufficient to cover Gibraltar, and secure it more effectually from being assaulted.

VII. The Duke of Modena to be made a Peer of France, and the King of Lombardy to pay him an annual Pension of 400000 Livres.

VIII. France either entirely to demolish the Fortifications of Dunkirk, or to pay Two Millions Sterling, in order to fortify a Port opposite to it.

IX. The Assiento Contract to be concluded with Great Britain for the Term of thirty-one Years, exclusive of all other Nations, and the Spaniards to be permitted to re-establish the Fortifications of Porto Bello.

X. All the Possessions of his Prussian Majesty to be guaranticed on him, the Imperial Dignity to the House of Austria, and the Crown of Poland to that of Saxony.

The Reprinting of the following humorous Edict, wrote by Mr. Addison, and first publish'd in the Spectator, No 523, upon the Plenipotentiaries going over to Utrecht, cannot be thought unseasonable.

WHEREAS the Time of a general Peace, is, in all Appearance, drawing near, being inform'd that there are several ingenious Persons who intend to shew their Talents on so happy an Occasion, and being willing, as much as in me lies, to prevent that Effusion of Nonsense, which we have good Cause to apprehend; I do hereby strictly require every Person, who shall write on this Subject, to remember that he is a Christian, and not to sacrifice his Catechism to his Poetry.

In order to it, I do expect of him in the first Place, to make his own Poem, without depending upon Phœbus for any Part of it, or calling out for Aid upon any of the Muses by Name.

I do likewise positively forbid the sending of Mercury with any particular Message or Dispatch relating to the Peace, and shall by no means suffer Minerva to take upon her the Shape of any Plenipotentiary concerned in this great Work.

I do farther declare, that I shall not allow the Destinies to have had any Hand in the Deaths of the several Thousands who have been slain in the War, being of Opinion, that all such Deaths may be very well accounted for by the Christian System of Powder and Ball. I do therefore strictly forbid the Fates to cut the Thread of Man's Life upon any Pretence whatsoever, unless it be for the Sake of the Rhime.

And whereas I have good Reason to fear, that Neptune will have a great deal of Business upon his Hands, in several Poems which we may suppose are now upon the Anvil, I do also prohibit his Appearance, unless it be done in Metaphor, Simile, or any very short Allu-ſion, and that even here he be not permitted to enter but with great Circumſpection.

I deſire that the ſame Rule may be extended to his whole Fraternity of Heathen Gods, it being my Deſign to condemn every Poem to the Flames in which Jupiter thunders, or exerciſes any other Act of Authority which doe not belong to him: In ſhort, I expect that no Pagan Agent ſhall be introduced, or any Fact related which a Man cannot give Credit to with a good Conſcience. Provided always that nothing herein contained ſhall extend, or be conſtrued to extend, to ſeveral of the Female Poets of this Nation, who ſhall ſtill be left in full Poſſeſſion of their Gods and Goddeſſes, in the ſame Manner as if this Paper had never been written.

The Earl of Cromartie has receiv'd his Majeſty's moſt gracious Pardon.

On Monday Morning next, John Blachford, Eſq; and Francis Cockayne, Eſq; Sheriffs of this City, will meet at the Mitre Tavern in Fenchurch Street, from whence they will go with the proper Officers to the Tower, and after knocking at the Gate, demand the Bodies of the two Lords, which will be delivered them by the Gentlemen Goaler, who has a Receipt given him by the Sheriffs on this Occaſion; from whence they will be conducted to the Houſe which ſtands on the Piarza on Tower Hill,, and from a Window of it be led ſingly to a Scaffold, which will be covered with black Bays, attended by their Divines, with the Axe carried before them, where the Sheriff have Orders to ſee the Sentence executed between the Hours of Nine and One o'Clock. And Orders are iſſued from the War-Office for twenty Men out of every Company of the firſt, ſecond, and third Regiments of Foot Guards, to appear on the Parade the ſame Morning at Two o'Clock, the Drums will beat to Arms at Three, and ſoon after they will march to Tower-Hill, to do Duty during the Execution.

And about Four o'Clock, ſeveral Parties o Horſe will march to Tower-Hill, to ſupport the Foot. When Alarm-Poſts are ordered to be fixed between Tower-Hill and the Guard-Houſe in St. James's Park, conſiſting of a Serjeant, a Drum, and ſix Men, at equal Diſtances within the Sound of a Drum, to give immediate Notice in caſe of any Diſturbance during the above Execution.

Great Interceſſion has been made to his Majeſty, to grant a Reſpite for ſome Time to the Execution of the Earl of Kilmarnock, but it will not be comply'd with.

Lord Lovat lay laſt Thurſday Night at Barnet, ſo that before this Time he muſt be lodged in the Tower

We hear, that Lord Lovat, juſt before he ſet out from Northampton for London, made great Enquiries after the Landlady of the Inn where he lay; and upon his being informed that ſhe was not in the way, and ask'd what he wanted in particular with her, ſaid, That he only deſired to ſalute her, for that he had kiſs'd every Landlady in his Journey thither; but would be content with paying his Reſpects to her as he went that way back again.

Thurſday Sir John Douglas, Bart. was brought to the Tower, from Scotland.

Thurſday his Excellency Benjamin Keen, Eſq; ſet out for Lisbon, with a grand Retinue.

We hear that a General Thankſgiving will ſhortly be appointed for the Suppreſſion of the Rebellion by the Duke's Victory at Culloden, on the 16th of April laſt; an Anniverſary the more remarkable, becauſe it was on that very Day of the Month, juſt 50 Years before this Victory, that the Thanks of the Nation were put up to Heaven, by Publick Authority, for the Deliverance of King William III. of glorious Memory, from the horrid Aſſaſination Plot.

On Wedneſday laſt as Mr Raey of Chelſea was going over the Black Lands near that Place, he was attacked by ſome Foot-Pads meanly dreſſed, who rifled his Pockets, and made off towards Brompton.

Laſt Monday Evening as a Gentleman and his Lady were going from Newport Pagnel to Northampton, in a Chariot and Four, attended by a Servant on Horſeback, they were attacked by two Highwaymen, with black Crapes pulled over their Faces, who robbed them of two Gold Watches, and ſome Money.

Several People having imagin'd that the Hammer of the Bell at St. Paul's, from the deadneſs of the Sound, was muffled, we are informed that the Stock was quite rotten, and the Bell ſunk above three Inches out of its Place, which made an Alteration of the Sound; and the Clock will only ſtrike the Quarters, till there is a new Stock to the ſaid Bell.

The Right Hon. the Lord Fitzwilliams will ſpeedily be created a Viſcount and Earl, by the Name, Stile, and Title of Viſcount Milton, and Earl Fitzwilliams of Norborough, in the County of Northampton.

On Wedneſday Edward Lowry was committed to Clerkenwell Bridewell, by Sir Thomas De Veil, for feloniouſly conveying or cauſing to be convey'd into his Majeſty's Jail of Newgate, ſeveral Saws and other Things, to facilitate the Eſcape of ſeveral Priſoners there, under Sentence of Tranſportation there, with an Intent to aid and aſſiſt ſuch Priſoners to eſcape, which Inſtruments were found upon him, with which he cut aſunder ſeveral Iron Bars belonging to the ſaid Jail.

Tueſday as a great Number of People were met upon Tower-Hill, to view the Scaffolding building on the Tops of the Houſes for ſeeing the Lords beheaded on Monday next, two Officers who had Writs againſt two Women, ſeized them in the Croud; but they got away, and begged the Protection of a large Preſs-Gang juſt by who immediately attacked the Officers and put them to flight; but afterwards getting a File of Muſqueteers from the Tower-Guard, they rallied, and purſued the Preſs-Gang, who got to a Houſe in Roſemary-Lane, and making off through a Back Way, were not ſeen afterwards.

On Monday laſt the Body of Southwark Grenadiers marched from the York Minſter in Bunhill Row, to Iſlington, where, in the Croſs-Street, they divided, and had an Engagement as uſual; after which they joined, and marched to the White-Horſe at Newington, where an elegant Entertainment was provided. In the Evening they went through a compleat Exerciſe at Arms, and returned to London, where at the Entrance of the City they tied one of their Member's Legs under a Horſe's Belly, and told the People (who were pretty numerous and curious) that they were carrying Lord Lovat to the Tower; but the Populace ſoon finding they were deceived, attack'd the Grenadiers, who were obliged to retreat to a Brother Members in Little Moorfields, whoſe Houſe was immediately ſurrounded by the Rabble, who broke all his Windows, and did other conſiderable Damage before they were diſperſed: And Tueſday Warrants were taken out to apprehend ſome of the Rioters, whoſe Perſons and Names are well known in that Neighbourhood.

Admiral Leſtock remains ſtill at St. Helen's with the Fleet under his Command. And Admiral Anſon will ſail with the Fleet for the Channel Service as ſoon as the Centurion is ready.

They inform us from Pool, that Yeſterday Se'nnight a Privateer was off Eaſt-Lulworth; ſhe is an Engliſh built Sloop, mounts four Carriage Guns, 20 Swivels, and has 100 Men, part of them Spaniards.——This Account of her was from two Women and a Dutchman, whom ſhe had taken in a Fiſhing Veſſel near Dartmouth, but were very civilly ſet on Shore near the above-mentioned Place.

The Diamond, Goatley, from Leghorn, is arrived at the Iſle of Wight.——In her Paſſage ſhe ſunk a Spaniſh Bark near Gibraltar; and alſo retook an Engliſh Veſſel bound from Briſtol to Southampton.

Extract of a Letter from Dartmouth, dated Auguſt 8.

"We have had a French Cutter Privateer that has for ſome time infeſted our Coaſt. On the 6th Inſtant ſhe chaſed the Hamble, of Hamble, Weſtcomb, of and from the Bar of Tinmouth, home to our Harbour's Mouth: when the Maſter, with part of his Crew and Paſſengers, took to the Boat, and came aſhore here; the Privateer took Poſſeſſion of the Hamble a few Minutes after he left her. There were on board when taken one Man, one Boy, and three Women Paſſengers, which the French carried off with them. The ſame Day a ſmall Boat, with Cyder, from hence to Plymouth, was taken by ſuch a Privateer (probably the ſame) and ranſomed for 15l. This Morning ſhe was ſeen cloſe to the Berry-Head; ſoon after ſhe ſet Sail, and made for the eaſtermoſt Part of Torbay, and run into a Cove to keep out of Sight, till ſome Veſſel comes along Shore, which muſt fall a Prey to her, if of no Force."

Extract of a Letter from Goſport, Auguſt 7.

"A Court Martial was held at Spithead on board the Kent, Commodore Windham, Preſident, on Capt. Bellitha of the Scipio, on a Complaint made againſt him by the Surgeon, Gunner, and Boatſwain; but upon a full Hearing, the Complaint appear'd groundleſs, and the Captain was honourably acquitted: Upon which, the Warrant Officers, the Evidence againſt him, were tried and broke.

His Majeſty's Ship the Sutherland arrived at Spithead on Thurſday laſt.

Yeſterday ſailed from Spithead his Majeſty's Sloop the Viper

Several Gangs of Shipwrights, Caulkers, Labourers, &c. are gone to Dock this Day, in order to expedite the Ships intended for Sea.

For Gleets and Weakneſſes.

THE Bane of Virility in the one Sex, and Deſtroyer of Fertility in the other, whether from ill cur'd Venereal Infections (than which nothing is more common) or from inordinate Coition, or Self-Pollution (that curſed School Wickedneſs, which ſpoils all our Youth, by nipping their Manhood in the Bud) or from involuntary Emiſſions a Nights in the Sleep, or in the Day Time upon Stool or with the Urine, or from Falls, Blows, Strains, Wrenches, or the like, which drain, and dry up, the Seminals, and wither, as it were the Generative Faculties, cauſing Impotency in Men, the Fluor Albus, and Barrenneſs in Women, (or but a weakly, ſickly Offspring if any) and in the long Run (by impoveriſhing the Blood and Spirits) Melancholy, Vapours, Decays of Nature, and Conſumptions.

No Medicine can be more pleaſant to take, nor any Thing upon Earth more effectual for the Purpoſes for let the Imbecility be ever ſo great, or of ever ſo long ſtanding, and be either in the Parts Spermatick Veſſels, or Back, with Pain, or without, it certainly Cures, by reviving and enriching the Blood and Spirits, comforting, nouriſhing, and repleniſhing the Reins and Seminals, and ſtrengthning, and reſtoring the Genital Parts in both Sexes, how much ſoever weakned, rendred cold, or deadned, and bringing them to their natural Force, Warmth, and Vigour, by thickening and fertiliſing the Seed, which before was thin, wateriſh, or yelloviſh, and conſequently inſufficient, either for Procreation or the Act of it.

All Diſorders of the Urine, as Difficulty in the making or retaining it, or its dribling away, hot or ſmarting, or foul, ſlimy, thready, greaſy or ſlinking, whether from Gravel, Stone, Strangury, or a Venereal Cauſe are likewiſe ſpeedily cured by it, and the Water made to be held as ſtrongly, and yet brought away as freely, eaſily, full ſtream'd, and clear as ever.

Price 5s. a Bottle. Prepared by the aboveſaid Author, and ſold only) ſealed up with Directions how to take it) at Mr. Corbett's Bookſeller, at Addiſon's Head, oppoſite St. Dunſtan's Church, Fleet-Street, and by Henry Cook, under the Royal-Exchange, taking only for a 5s. Bottle of Elixir.

The True Cordial QUINTESSENCE of VIPERS, the moſt Noble and Grand Preparation in the whole Materia Medica, for the real, ſubſtantial Cure of Impotency in Men, and Barrenneſs in Women; and is vaſtly preferable to Viper Wine, or any other Preparation of Vipers whatever, as being replete with the full and whole Virtues of them.

A Few Drops of it only, gives ſuch a generous Warmth, and ſo exceedingly delights the Vital and Animal Spirits, Senſes, and Nerves, as ſoon to ſhew what it will do upon a little Continuance of it; for it not only promotes, and promptes to a Deſire, but alſo furniſhes proper Matter, for the Support and Eſtabliſhment of a true laſting Inclination and Power.

By this Means it anſwers the End as well of Food as Phyſick; nor is there any thing in Nature beſides, that can in that Reſpect come up to it conſidering that it univerſally nouriſhes and reſtores in all the Declenſions of Debre and Vigour, without the leaſt forcing the Veſſels, or ſtimulating the Parts, as moſt other Medicines for theſe Purpoſes do: And tho' it be a Myſtery in Phyſick that SINE CERERE & BACCHO FRIGET VENUS, that is, in itſelf is ſo ſufficiently nutritious as to want no Aſſiſtance that Way; not but it muſt be allowed, that good Eating and Drinking with it, cannot but in ſome Degree, at leaſt as an Auxiliary contribute to its Efficacy.

Nor does it only furniſh Matter and create Deſire, but alſo true Power (as it braces up and corroborates the Veſſels) and gives an elaſtick Springineſs to the Muſculi Erectores Penis in Men, and corrects, cleanſes, and comforts the Uterus, or Womb in Women, the Lankneſs and Laxity of the former, and the Foulneſs, Coldneſs, or Obſtruction of the latter, being more the Cauſe of Impotency or Infertility, in the one Sex, and Indifferency or Sterility in the other than any Thing elſe beſide; and that it is Balſamick, and greatly Reſtorative, is confirmed by long Experience, and we have many Inſtances in Phyſical Writings, of Perſons arriving to a healthful old Age, as well as recover'd from deplorable Decays and Weakneſſes, by a continued Uſe of the common Preparations of Vipers, which this Quinteſſence, by being of vaſtly more Efficacy, brings about in a Quarter of the Time, and with the Tenth Part of the Quantity.

Thoſe who but once try it, will ſo pleaſantly experience its nutritive quickening Properties, in exhilerating the Heart, reviving the Spirits, comforting the Vitals, circulating the Juice, and recreating and renovating, as it were the whole Man, that they will never be without it; for it is ſuch a preſent Help in Time of Need, as that on the taking then but a Doſe or two more of it than ordinary, it will ſo inſtantaneouſly animate the dull inactive Spirits, and rouze up and adjuſte the ſluggiſh enfeebled Faculties in both Sexes, as to excite and capacitate where it could hardly be expected, and at the ſame Time ſeldom fails to render that conjugal Intercourſe Prolifick. Price Half a Guinea the Bottle.

Mr. Weſt, Goldſmith, who us'd to ſell theſe Bottles, being lately dead, it is now Sold only by his Son-in-Law, Mr. Johnſon, a Baker, at the Seven Stars in Vere-Street, Clare-Market, ſealed up, with Directions (for any Meſſenger) upon asking for only a Bottle of Quinteſſence.

ANTI-SIPHYLICON

THE only short and most infallible CURE in the Universe for the Venereal Disease from the slightest Infection to the most extreme and deplorable Degree of it, even when the Blood and Juices are thoroughly contaminated with its malignant Ferus, and the very Bones are affected with it.

Fresh Infections, call'd Claps, with all their attendant Symptoms, tho' ever so severe, are entirely carried off by it in a few Days, and so as effectually to prevent the Blood and Juices from being tainted with any remaining Relicks, on one Hand, or a feminal Gleet, or Weakness, to happen on the other.

And the most inveterate Degrees of the French Illness, attended with nocturnal Pains, universal Breaking-out, and all other the most exasperate Symptoms, are soon overcome by it, and effectually and much more safely cured than by Salivation, Fumigation, or any other Method whatever, and in so easy and pleasant a Manner, without impairing Strength, or occasioning any Inconvenience, as loudly to bespeak it the only appointed Remedy, or true Venereal Antidote in the World, and that some Thousands have, to their great Joy, experienced.

It is pleasant to take, occasions no Sickness or Disorder, nor requires Confinement, but may be taken, and the Cure be accomplished, without the Knowledge of the nearest Friend.

Those who suspect they have received an Injury may, by only a Dose or two of it, be perfectly freed from all Apprehensions; for a Pustules or lurking Venom to lie hid in the Body, but wholly expurges it, Root and Branch, in a gentle, easy, and most effectual Manner.

And such, likewise, as doubt they have some remaining Relicks of former Injuries, may, by a few Doses of it, entirely free themselves from all Suspicions of that Kind; for it admits of no Foulness, Corruption, or Putrefaction whatever, to remain in the Fluids, or to adhere to the Solids; and, on that Account, in all Scorbutick, Scrophulous, and even Leprous Eruptions, or Foulnesses of the Skin, or glandulous Swellings, and Impurities of the Juices, it does more by one Dose than any other Medicine, yet known, can by ten.

The Price of this most noble Anti-Siphylicon is but Six Shillings a Pot, which, considering its extraordinary Efficacy, one Pot only being sufficient in most Cases to accomplish the Cure, is not a tenth Part of its Value; and is appointed by the Author to be had only at Mr. Radford's Toyshop, at the Rose and Crown, against St. Clement's Church-yard in the Strand, ready sealed up, with a Book of Instructions, by the Perusal of which all Persons who were ever affected with any Degree of the Venereal Disease may perfectly understand their own Condition, and certainly know when, and when not, the Venereal Poison is entirely rooted out of their Bodies. Note, Ask only for a Six Shilling Pot of the Spirit.

Concerning Gleets and Seminal Weaknesses of all Sorts.

As the judicious Physicians and Surgeons allow, that nothing is more difficult to cure than Stubborn Gleets and Seminal Weaknesses either occasion'd by too severe purging for Venereal Impurities, virulent Strictures, Pollutions, or any other Cause whatever; and that they are dangerous in their Consequences, as well as difficult to cure, in as certain as they exceedingly weaken the Generative Faculties, infeeble the whole Nervous System, often bring on Hectick Heats, a Rabies Dorsalis or Consumption of the Back, or an Atrophy or Nervous Consumption which frequently terminate in Death itself:

All such therefore who have the Misfortune to be troubled with Old stubborn Gleets, Seminal Effusions, Involuntary Emissions, excessive Nocturnal Pollutions, or any Weakness of the Kidneys, Ureters, or Bladder, the Difficulty, Incontinency of Urine, or Difficulty of holding their Water, would doubtless be glad to meet with a certain, safe and speedy Cure, which they most assuredly may, by the taking only a small Quantity of a transcendent Balsamick Restrictive Electuary, now published for a general Good, after having for many Years in private Practice been experienced never more to fail perfectly curing the most stubborn Gleets known, in a few Days, without Difficulty or Trouble; as also all other Weaknesses of the Back, Reins, Seminal Vessels and Urinary Passages, which it almost instantly cures, bringing to rights and restoring all those Parts and Passages to their natural Tone and pristine Vigour, in a very extraordinary Manner, and by taking a few Doses of it only.

This transcendent Balsamick Restrictive Electuary is neither disagreeable to take, nor occasions the least Disorder, but is a wonderful Restorative in all Weaknesses and Decay of Constitution of any Kind, and particularly strengthens the Back, Reins, Seminal and Urinary Vessels, to an immense Degree, insomuch that in any Debility of them, one Dose of it does more than ten of any other Remedy yet found out; and all Persons fatigued with Gleets or Seminal Weaknesses of any Sort, or Weaknesses of the Urinary Vessels, who take it, will in three Days time find it so very effectual, that they will be most agreeably surprized at it.

When a Medicine will infallibly accomplish such a safe, speedy and perfect Cure of such difficult Maladies, as Gleets and Seminal Weaknesses are, as this Great Remedy truly and directly will, even after all other Means and Medicines have been try'd in vain; too much cannot be said in Praise of it, and this all who ever took it for any of the above mention'd Purposes, have readily declared.

The Price is but 6s. a Pot, altho' for its absolute Efficacy, one Pot alone being sufficient in most Cases to accomplish a Cure, worth ten times as much, and by the Author's special Appointment, is to be had only at Mr Radford's Toyshop at the Rose and Crown against St. Clement's Church Yard in the Strand, ready sealed up, with a Book of Instructions, which whosoever carefully reads will be compleat Master of his own Case, and perfectly know, when the Gleet or Weakness he is afflicted with proceeds a Venereal Injury, whether all the Malignity of the foul Disease is entirely extirpated or not.

Note, Ask only for a Six Pot of Balsamick Electuary.

To all Gentlemen, Builders, and Others

THOMAS ETTERIDGE, COLOURMAN,

He likewise sells to the Ladies all sorts of WATER COLOURS and VARNISH with every thing necessary for the New Japanning, and gives a printed Direction, for the doing of it to the greatest Perfection, to those that buy Colours. Also Italian Powder for cleaning Pictures, and fine Picture Varnish.

He deals only for READY MONEY

His House faces Norfolk Street, and not Arundel Street, in the Strand.

The only short and infallible Cure for that reigning Disease the SCURVY, and all Scorbutick Humours, tho' arrived to the utmost or most inveterate Degree, or of ever so many Years standing, and that without one sensible Evacuation, or the least Purging, which, by an unaccountable Mistake, is Generally advised, altho' always found rather to encrease and confirm the Scurvy than cure it.

By the so much fam'd and most pleasant Chymical DROPS.

WHICH, without the least Trouble, Confinement, or any Disorder whatever, do at once strike at the true Cause of the Scurvy, and entirely destroy it, and all Scorbutick Humours and Effects, Root and Branch, so as never to return again, as many Thousands of both Sexes have experienced, and as all who take them in Three Days Time are convinced; for they almost instantly alter the morbid State of the Juices, purify the Blood, sweeten all the Fluids, cleanse the most Impurities, and directly clear the whole Habit from all Spots, Pimples, black and blue Marks, Itchings, foul Eruptions or Breakings out, Weakness of the Limbs, languid Heaviness of the whole Body, wandering Pains, Weakness of the Back, and all the vast Variety of Symptoms by which the Scurvy matter and often times conceal'd under the Appearance of the Rheumatism, and many other Distempers.

And for strengthening the Stomach, immediately creating a good Appetite, causing a regular and easy Digestion of Foods, and curing windy Effects and Disorders of the most ruffling, (whence proceed Head Aches, Vapours, and other frightful distempers) no Bitters, nor all other Medicine upon Earth can compare with them, insomuch that besides intirely curing the Scurvy, in all its Shapes and Appearance they after a few days and directly cure the Green-Sickness in Virgins, Worms in Children or Young or Old, and almost all other Chronick Diseases which are chiefly occasioned by Indigestion and flatulent Crudities in the Stomach and Bowels, and certainly prevent Fevers, Agues, and other acute Diseases.

They are wonderfully Cordial and Restorative, strengthen and revive the whole Machine, and as soon as taken, make the Patient sensibly lightsome, brisk and vigorous to Admiration, and are good for all Sorts of Persons, to preserve a well as to procure a found and healthful State of Body.

Now the great Reputation these so much fam'd and most pleasant Chymical DROPS have so universally gain'd among Persons of Eminence for their suddenly and infallibly curing the Scurvy and all Scorbutick Humours, and other Chronick Diseases, in such an agreeable Manner, have occasion'd many to imitate them, foolishly alter the Name, and others under other Names; be careful therefore not to be deceived but be sure to have the Right, which by the Author's Special Appointment are to be had, only at the Gentlewoman's at the two blue Posts in Haydon Yard in the Minories, at 3s. 6d. a Bottle, with Directions.

CONFECTIO POTENTISSIMA.

Or, The most Powerful Restorative Confect in Nature For Impotency in Men and Barrenness in Women,

IS delightful to the Palate, most agreeable and cordial to the Stomach, enriches the Blood, increases the Spirits, invigorates the Nerves, and perfectly renovates all the Animal Faculties, and generative Powers, in both Sexes, to such a Degree, as Words can scarce express; and yet acts not only by a stimulating Quality, or blowing up a Flame, but by adding a true Pabulum Amoris, a kindly Fuel, by which Nature is in a Manner regenerated, and so much Strength, Vigour, and Ability, immediately given, that Impotency, and every Kind of Weakness, or Imbecility in the Male Sex, and Barrenness, and all Sorts of Weakness, and Inapptency to Conjugal Rites in the Female Sex, are most infallibly and directly cured by it, in a very pleasant and highly agreeable Manner, infinitely beyond what any other Remedy can accomplish. Decays of every Kind in either Sex, and all Seminal Weaknesses, however occasioned, it almost instantly cures, when nothing else will, and can be had only, by the Author's Appointment, at the Gentlewoman's at the two Blue Posts, in Haydon Yard, in the Minories, London, at five Shillings a Pot, with printed Directions at large.

PARALYTICON SEU ANIMA NERVORUM.

A stupendous Chymical Essence which infallibly cures the PALSY, and all other Nervous Diseases.

THE very first Dose of it (a few Drops only) instantly penetrates the inmost Recesses of the minutest Nerves, and darting all most as quick as Lightning through the whole human System, diffuses kindly Warmth and genial Comfort to the weaken'd Limbs, and all Parts of the Body, and affords immediate sensible Relief in the most obstinate Palsy, and all Paralytick Affects, Shaking, Trembling, Numbness, Deadness, and Weakness, whether universal, or of particular Parts only, or whether lately contracted, or of many Years Continuance.

And as the very first Dose makes an apparent demonstrable Amendment to the continuing it for a short Time, as surely accomplishes a perfect Cure, not only of the most grievous Palsy or Resolution of the Sinews, but also of their Cramp-like Contractions, shrinking of the Nerves, and all other nervous Complaints whatever, and than it Persons of either Sex, or of any Age, and whether occasioned by preceding Illnesses, fast Living, hard Drinking, long Courses of Physick, great Colds, or excessive Fatigues either of Mind or Body.

Words cannot sufficiently express the uncommon, the unparallel'd Efficacy of this great Medicine, as all who take it, frankly acknowledge, and its vastly superior Excellency to all other Remedies, may be more securely rely'd on, for the absolute Cure of the Palsy, and all Paralytick Affects, and Nervous Indispositions, than the celebrated Cortex is for Intermittents.

It rectifies all Disorders of the first Passages, creates an Appetite procures a good Digestion, enriches the Blood, restores the natural Vigour and Ready Use of the Limbs, and strengthens the enfeebled Joints, Muscles, Tendons, Ligaments and whole Habit to an immense Degree. It is also very pleasant to take, is comforting and cordial to the Stomach and Bowels, and for Safety might be given to the youngest Infant. It is to be had only by the Author's Appointment, at Mr Radford's Toyshop, at the Rose and Crown against St. Clement's Church-yard in the Strand, at 3s. 6d. a Bottle with printed Directions at large.

This Day is published,

The Seventh Edition (wherein is inserted a Method of instantly curing the most torturing Fits of the Cramp without Trouble, or the taking or using any Medicine, or being at any Expence whatever) with some very material Additions, of

A Treatise on the Diseases of the HEAD, BRAIN, and NERVES, more especially of the Palsy, Apoplexy, Lethargy, Epilepsy, Convulsions, Cramp, Frenzy, Vertigo, Megrim, inveterate Head-ach, &c. with Directions for their thorough Cure, and how these and many other deplorable Nervous Distempers may be assuredly prevented, as well as certainly cur'd and consequently many Lives saved by the Medicines therein, in English, prescribed; without the least Grieve. To which is subjoined,

A Discourse of MELANCHOLY in Men, and VAPOURS in Women, wherein is the whole Train of Symptoms, various Degrees, and real Cause of those wretched Maladies; and discovering a short and most certain Method of Cure, by safe and easy Remedies therein so candidly prescribed, and by which Persons of either Sex, who are unhappily afflicted with Melancholy or Vapours, may absolutely free themselves of those pernicious Distempers in a short Time, with not any Fatigue or Disorder. By a Physician.
